During the six months, Ruder & Finn was engaged in the following activities on behalf of the Government of Eastern Nigeria.

1. Conception, preparation, and proof of a public relations program for the Government of Eastern Nigeria, including recommendations for advertising, press releases, achieving editorial support, visits of important persons to Eastern Nigeria, speaking tours, and an economic newsletter.
2. Preparation and placement of a full-page advertisement entitled "Nigeria's Last Hope" in THE NEW YORK TIMES and the WASHINGTON POST for the purpose of presenting the viewpoint of the Eastern Region of Nigeria, now known as the Republic of Biafra.
3. Preparation and dissemination of a series of three mailings to United States Congressmen to bring their attention to Eastern Nigeria. These mailings were followed up with those Congressmen expressing interest in Eastern Nigeria.
4. Preparation, layout and design for proposed economic newsletter to be sent to American business community.
5. Mass mailings to United States Congressmen, university professors of African studies, and prominent American citizens interested in Nigeria of the following booklets:

The North and Constitutional Developments in Nigeria
On Aburi We Stand
Nigerian Pogrom Crisis 1966
Crisis '66
The Meeting Of The Supreme Military Council
